

Graph Homomorphisms

Tim Mussche

23/11/2005

László Lovász et al. define the concept of the connection matrix of a certain graph. They prove that this infinite matrix is positive semidefinite and has finite rank. These properties can be used to prove known inequalities in graph theory. Maybe it is possible to find new interesting inequalities using this matrix.